2026 ANNUAL SEMINARIAN SUPPORT COLLECTION

Your generous gift of any amount helps support the men preparing to serve as future priests of the Diocese of Youngstown!

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

On Good Shepherd Sunday, April 25–26, 2026, we are invited to reflect on Christ, the Good Shepherd, who continues to call men to follow Him in service to His people. Our diocesan collection for seminarian support provides for the formation of those answering that call. Please keep our seminarians in your prayers and consider supporting them through this special collection. Second collections will be held at parishes throughout the diocese, or you may make a gift online at www.doy.org/seminarians. Together, we help foster vocations and strengthen the Church for generations to come.

“Follow me.” These words of Christ still echo today in the hearts of men discerning the priesthood. On April 25–26, 2026, our diocese will take up the Good Shepherd Sunday Collection to support our seminarians as they prepare to answer that call. Your prayers and financial support make a lasting impact on the future of our Church. Thank you for helping to nurture vocations. Second collections will be held at parishes throughout the diocese or you can give a gift online at www.doy.org/seminarians

Fourth Sunday of Easter – April 26, 2026 – World Day of Prayer for Vocations

World Day of Prayer for Vocations - 2026

In 1963 Pope Paul VI designated Good Shepherd Sunday as World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Christ Jesus, the Good Shepherd, knows us well and gives his life for us. In the name of Christ Jesus, we rejoice in the Good Shepherd who leads us into fullness of life.

As we celebrate this feast we pray for fidelity to our vocation. The Church invites us to honor the vocation of all Christians given at baptism. Through the vocation of marriage, priesthood, diaconate, consecrated life, and the single life may we further the reign of God. May those who are discerning their life vocation listen to the voice of the Good Shepherd to guide them.

Papal Messages for World Day of Prayer for Vocations

“The Lord of life knows us and enlightens our hearts with his loving gaze.” Indeed, every vocation begins with the awareness and experience of a God who is love (cf. 1 Jn 4:16). He knows us profoundly; he has counted the hairs of our head (cf. Mt 10:30) and has envisaged for each person a unique path of holiness and service. Yet this awareness must always be reciprocal. We are invited to know God through prayer, listening to the Word, the Sacraments, the life of the Church and works of charity for our brothers and sisters. Like the young Samuel, who unexpectedly heard the voice of the Lord during the night and learned to recognize it with the help of Eli (cf. 1 Sam 3:1–10), we too must create a space for interior silence in order to hear what the Lord desires for our happiness. This is not a matter of lofty ideas or scholarly learning, but of a personal encounter that transforms one’s life. God dwells in our hearts. A vocation entails an intimate dialogue with the One who calls and invites us to respond, despite the deafening noise of the world, with true joy and generosity. -Pope Leo, World Day of Prayer for Vocations, 2026

Prayer for Vocations

Gracious God,

With grateful hearts we welcome the presence of Jesus, our Good Shepherd.

We accept the mission of Jesus to bring good news to the world

by our baptismal commitment to gospel living.

Bless us with discerning hearts.

May we have the courage to give our lives in loving service through married life, the single life,

the consecrated life, and ordained life.

Inspire men and women to respond generously and embrace the gift of a religious vocation.

We unite our prayers with the whole Church,

with the communion of saints, with Jesus and the Spirit in praise and thanksgiving now and forever. Amen.
